

Note: Make sure resistance across the push button, manual trigger, and toggle switch is reasonable (e.g. $5k\Omega - 25k\Omega$) to lower power consumption. The solid-state relays have a resistance of $1.5M\Omega$, so shunting doesn't require an extremely low resistance.